SALES OF STAMPS IN MAY GO TO 550,000

Daily Average 21,538 Used by El Pasoans for Correspondence During the Month.

A total of 550,000 2-cent stamps, or their equal in stamps of other denominations, were sold during the month of May at the El Paso postoffice. The accounts at the postoffice show that $11,000 was taken in during the past month for the little cubes which are considered good form for sticking on the upper right hand corner of letters. As there were 26 working days during the month of May, the daily average of two, or their big and little brothers, was 21,538, which is considered some stamps for this particular part of the year.

The stamp business was not the only trade merchant Smith did in government goods last month. The report for the month of May shows that in addition to the stamp sales, there were $3600 worth of special request envelopes sold with the name of the local firms inscribed in the upper left hand corner. Six cents brought $100, making a grand total of $15,000, exclusive of the money order, parcel post and registry business.

LANE REVERSES RULING ON IRRIGATED HOMESTEAD LANDS.

Washington, D. C., June 12.—Secretary Lane, of the interior department, has settled a long disputed question in regard to the public lands by holding that, under the law of June 23, 1910, persons who take assignments of reclamation homesteads upon which final proof has been made, need not show themselves to be qualified homesteaders.

The secretary held, however, that such assignments could take and hold only one farm unit, the fundamental purpose of the law being to divide irrigated lands among as many families as they will support.

The ruling reverses a regulation of the interior department issued last February.

LOS ANGELES POLICE CHIEF SAYS SUFFRAGE LESSENS CRIME.

Washington, D. C., June 12.—Woman suffrage as a means of lessening crime was advocated here by C. E. Sebastian, chief of police of Los Angeles, Calif., in an address before the closing session of the annual convention of the International Association of Police Chiefs.

Police chief Sebastian declared that through suffrage recognition of police women in Los Angeles had been obtained and crime had been materially reduced.

Suffrage, he added, helped to break down the false modesty that had prevented public discussion of sex problems.

The chiefs chose Grand Rapids, Mich., as their next meeting place.

FOREIGNERS TO BE SENT BACK TO NATIVE LANDS

Three Spaniards, charged with having been smuggled into El Paso as contract laborers, will be taken to Galveston, Texas, tonight by immigration inspector C. B. Dixon. They are Bernardino C. T. Calleja, Ricardo I. Harro and Santiago Diaz. Two Syrians, smuggled in at Laredo, will join the party at San Antonio, as will Tomas Yella, an Italian charged with being a white slave. They will sail from Galveston on June 14 and will go to their various countries.

Army Divorce Suit Attracts Attention

MRS. HATTIE VAN AND DAUGHTER

San Francisco, Calif., June 12.—Officers of the army and their families at every post in the country are taking an interest in the divorce suit brought by Capt. H. C. Merriam against Mrs. Hattie Van, who, until her marital troubles started, was a favorite in army circles.

Mal Clarence Murphy, now stationed at New Orleans, is mentioned by Capt. Merriam in his suit and the names of men prominent in military affairs have also been brought into the suit. Mrs. Merriam is accused of being unduly friendly with Mal. Murphy in New Orleans during the early part of 1911, while her husband was stationed on the Texas border.

She admitted having been frequently in the major's company, but denied the specific charges made by her husband.

James E. Lundy, a number of mutual friends of the couple have endeavored to bring about a reconciliation for the sake of their beautiful daughter, Charlotte. Mrs. Merriam declared she was willing to start all over again, but the captain said he could never bring himself to live with her again.

A. S. Durlison has ruled that the post office mail boxes must be painted a deep green. Under the former administration, the boxes were ordered painted red.

Comfort and the Summer

In the Hot Days, Comfort Should Come First. Even if Some

By Virginia Terhune Van de Water

LOVERS of Dickens remember with amusement, mixed with sympathy, Mrs. Boffin's heartfelt exclamation: "Let's be comfortable!"

Now that the heated term is to be with us for some months to come, it would be well for the wife and mother to choose as her motto one containing some such sentiment as that expressed in Mrs. Boffin's ejaculation. This motto should embrace in its application not only herself—perhaps herself least of all—but those with whom she has to live this summer, especially the male members of the family, her husband and sons. It is not always easy to keep one's temper in hot weather, nor to endure patiently the countless little disturbances that fret and annoy, such as flies, mosquitoes, and, last, but not least, the queer state of affairs incidental to the presence of men and boys during vacation, leaving their books, magazines and newspapers tossed about in living room or on veranda, and plentifully sprinkling floors with tobacco, ashes and bare matches.

I deprecate carelessness in house-keeping and in the management of the home, but I do insist that there are things that are more important than absolute order in every part of the house—and one of these is the comfort of the inmates. Women are prone to be a little too exacting and to suggest to men that certain things should be attended to at once. If the weather is hot, let the little task go undone rather than ask a man to disturb himself to perform it when he is hot and warm—always supposing, of course, that the omission does not mean discomfort or injury to some person or thing.

What perfect condition your sister's house is always in, makes a woman as she viewed a neighbor's veranda and living room.

"Yes, at the expense of the comfort of all the rest of us!" exclaimed the orderly housewife's brother. "It is nag, suggest and direct from morning to night. I wonder how her husband and boys stand it. A dozen times a day I hear her at it. It is: 'John, lower that blind' or 'Shut that door' or 'Put that book away' or 'Hang up that hat you left on the table' or 'Wipe your feet before you come into the house.' In fact, there are so many orders given that the weary males in this household feel as if they would camp out in the woods for the sake of a little peace."

It was an unkind and, perhaps, unfair criticism. The sister, wife and mother was keeping house for her family, and in fussing about things, felt she was doing them service. But again—was it worth it? Would it not have been better to let the house in order each morning, and then, if keeping it immaculate meant the sacrifice of the comfort of others, let it be untidy? The woman who breaks into an interesting conversation to scold a cloth and wipe from a chair-rung dust seen by nobody but herself, is selfish in her zeal for cleanliness. Other people are comfortable—then let them alone!

TWENTY-TWO BLIND CHILDREN GO HOME FOR VACATION TIME

Chaperoned by a blue-eyed American girl, 22 little blind students of the New Mexico Blind Institute, of Alamogordo, N. M., arrived here Thursday afternoon to be taken to their homes in the northern and western parts of New Mexico. The little ones were taken from the train in the form of a chain, each holding the hands of the others, and they were carefully watched over by Miss Ruth Worley, one of the teachers.
